

DoDIntelJobs.com Employer Subscription Information

DoDIntelJobs.com is a job board for the Defense and Intelligence Industry and is an excellent resource for cleared and veteran Job Seekers. Employer Services include Resume Search, Job Posting Packages, and V-Source, our on-demand recruiting assistance service.

Resume Search - Our Outreach

DoDIntelJobs.com markets in multiple ways to Job Seekers with cleared / defense / intelligence / military / government backgrounds. A one-year subscription provides Resume Search access to all of the existing Job Seekers and all of the new ones over the next year (17-19,000 Job Seekers projected through Dec. 2014). Our initiatives include:

- Ongoing ads on WTOP radio, Washington DC's top news and traffic station.
- Our partnership with top Mid-Atlantic military-related Job Fair provider JobZone Job Fairs, where all Job Seekers that register for job fairs have the opportunity to opt-in to a free posting on DoDIntelJobs.com.
- Indexing through popular web search / job search engines.
- Participation and outreach through multiple industry and military-related organizations.

Job Postings - Exposure

DoDIntelJobs.com provides large blocks of Job Postings for participating Employers. When Job Seekers apply to Job Postings, the resume and profile of the Job Seeker is sent directly to the recruiter email listed with the Job Posting. We understand it is time consuming to post and update jobs, and as a courtesy, DoDIntelJobs.com will post and maintain your jobs for you.

Job Postings not only provide direct applicants, but also provide important exposure. Many Job Seekers will use sites like DoDIntelJobs.com as a research tool and go directly to the company's website. Given the large block of postings we provide and the web ranking we achieve from the indexing of these jobs, this exposure alone has tremendous value.

V-Source - An extension of your team

V-Source is the on-demand recruiting assistance program provided by DoDIntelJobs.com. The service is where our experienced DoD / Intel recruiters work one-on-one with your team and utilize our massive resource base to recruit for your requirements. Our roots are in the DoD / Intel recruiting space, and our staff has years of experience with cleared requirements. V-Source is great for hard-to-fill openings or surge situations like new contract awards or proposal efforts. The service is flexible where you can turn it on when you need it and off when you don't. There's no obligation and additional service is provided at an hourly rate. We can provide sourcing only or full life-cycle recruiting.
